○ Weekly Summary (Short summary about what you did this week)

For this week, Chenliang started to make the database that is used for storing course information and user information. Once he finishes making the database, Sam will start to test for data transmission and iBeacon distance. Sam will also write code that scans for Bluetooth device advertisements on a repeating clock and then parses it to obtain the Beacon ID.

○ Past week accomplishments (please describe as what was done, by whom, when)

- All the work is in process.

○ Pending issues (if applicable)

○ Plan for coming week (please describe as what, who, when)
